THE COURSE

- To seek appointment as a Marriage Celebrant in Australia, you must first complete the course Certificate IV in Celebrancy CHC41015.
- The appointment process can be read at www.ag.gov.au/marriage under the heading “Becoming a Celebrant”.

Australian Celebrations Training goal is to train students to become well educated and skilled in the profession of celebrancy. We take pride in our training team, our curriculum, our easy to follow student material, and our ability to educate and engage with our students. Ultimately our students as successful celebrants now in the community are our true calling card.

You will be learning about the legal responsibilities of marrying couples, but celebrancy is so much more than just that important element. The course will broaden your ability to offer a variety of ceremonies that are sought after in our community, and we hope to enrich you personally.

Sometimes our students have not studied for a long time, or English is their second language, we understand vulnerabilities in our students and work with them individually to help them succeed.

The qualification of Certificate IV in Celebrancy was designed to bring a new level of education to the profession of Celebrancy. The requirement to have formal qualifications started in 2003, with 3 units of competency, and then from 2010 the requirement changed to 13 units awarding the whole Cert IV qualification. This qualification is a nationally recognised course under the Australia Skills Quality Authority, and can be viewed at www.training.gov.au, use its code to help you find the information (CHC41015).

Before enrolling you should familiarise yourself with the appointment process by visiting the webpage (www.ag.gov.au/marriage), and you should also read the Conflict of interest and benefit to business for Commonwealth Registered Marriage Celebrants to ascertain if you may have a perceived conflict of interest which may jeopardise your appointment as a marriage celebrant.

In addition to the course fee there is also a $600 application fee which is paid directly to the Attorney-General's Department at the time of lodging your application for appointment and ongoing yearly fees to retain your marriage celebrant registration.

ABOUT THE PROFESSION

In 2003 new Commonwealth legislation was enacted to engage aspiring Marriage Celebrants in training, before going on to complete other appointment requirements. The appointment of Marriage Celebrants is under the direction of the Commonwealth Attorney-General's Department, Family Law Branch (Marriage, Law and Celebrants' Section). The reforms apply to Authorised Marriage Celebrants and to Non-aligned Religious Marriage Celebrants.

During the reforms that led to the new training for Celebrants, other elements also impacted on the profession of Celebrancy. All existing Celebrants are required to undertake 5 hours of annual ongoing professional development and may be subject to performance reviews.

Currently the national celebrant population is 10,030 (2020). Therefore, it would be in your best interest to read over the "Becoming a Marriage Celebrant" information on the Attorney-General's Department website. Researching the profession first will help you make an informed decision about enrolling or not enrolling.

We direct you to this information not to put you off becoming a celebrant, but to encourage you to make a clear decision on entering the profession and to understand the environment of celebrancy.

Whilst the profession of Celebrancy is a joyous and rewarding career, please do not underestimate the breadth of knowledge and professionalism you must aspire to. The Attorney-General's staff, industry members, and national vocational education and training specialists spent a great deal of time deliberating on what would be the content of this training. Marriage and funeral celebrants, along with performing and conducting ceremonies, have a great social and legal responsibility.

OUR TRAINING TEAM

We would highly encourage you to read over the information about our training team on our webpage. You will see that they come from all over Australia and are very competent celebrants and businesspeople.

One of the key elements of our training team is their wide experience in celebrancy. All our training team members are Commonwealth Registered Marriage Celebrants, and no-one can join the team unless they have completed a minimum of 100 marriage ceremonies. Three of our team have exceeded 1000 ceremonies.

Along with their celebrancy skills they are all highly experienced trainers and know how to work well with adult learners. Whether you are a person who has not been near a classroom since high school or you are a highly qualified person, all students are cared for in the same personable manner and encouraged to ask questions and enjoy their learning experience.

Students whose first language is not English are most welcome in our classes. It is because of our trainers' experience that we can offer these great learning environments. All the trainers are also ongoing professional development trainers which gives them the opportunity to teach colleagues in workshops across Australia annually. Not only are they imparting the workshop information for the year, but we gather valuable insights from colleagues, which in turn enhances our knowledge, and then we can further share this with our students.

Our staff team is well connected at high levels within professional celebrant associations and have a great understanding of the issues and passions of our profession. Another criterion of our training team is passion. The team members are wholly supportive of the new era of celebrants and bring to our newer colleagues a great deal of knowledge and history to the industry individually.

THE QUALIFICATION

Australian Celebrations Training Pty Ltd is a nationally recognised Registered Training Organisation (RTO #31179) permitted to deliver Certificate IV in Celebrancy CHC41015 and issue a Certificate IV testamur to successful participants. Where a participant does not complete all units required in the qualification requirements, a Statement of Attainment will be issued for units of competency achieved.

SUPPORTING YOUR LEARNING

If you have a special need, we are happy to assist you to be successful in your learning. Please advise us or enquire when enrolling. It is important that you fully complete your Learning Support Plan, so we know from the beginning any element that is important to your successful learning. Also, if your circumstances change during your enrolment, we would like to know so we can offer support if needed.

Some students we have met over the years are worried that they may not pass the course of study. Vocational Education is not about getting 51% to get through the course, it is about graduating people who are competent in that profession. As we highly regard our own profession, we will not graduate people until we believe that they can not only have the skills and knowledge to perform the job, but that they can do it well. In parts of the legal elements of the course, students will be required to achieve highly as this is a very important function of the role of a marriage celebrant.

What will assessments be like?

Vocational education is competency based. There are no timed examinations in the way that you have probably completed in the past. We work with each student until they are competent in the skills or knowledge of the qualification. You need to complete all assessments to a required standard to gain the qualification. In the 9 celebrancy units there is much cross over on skills and knowledge, and in assessment outcomes so the course has not been written one unit at a time in a standalone fashion, it has been written holistically to make the assessment load lighter and not double up.

Assessments

- Written assignments
- Observation and report writing
- Practical
- Oral assignments
- Performance of tasks
- Research, analyse, and review

The assessment process is designed to allow each participant to demonstrate the outcomes required by each unit. You should expect a range of assessment methods, such as written activities, preparing documents, gathering workplace samples, role playing, filming a variety of ceremonies and other assessment tools. Once your assessments are received they take 7-10 working days to be assessed and you will be given feedback via email or online via the student message system. You are welcome to ring or message your tutor about your course at any time.

Should you not achieve successful completion in an assessment, you will be given the opportunity to be assessed again, your enrolment allows 3 attempts at each assessment task. If further re-assessment is needed a fee of $75 will be charged for each further attempt.

STUDENT INFORMATION POLICY

Our policy includes the following – enrolment procedures, language and literacy, support for students, refund policy, complaint mechanism, and equity for students. Before agreeing to enrol you will be asked to read this policy first. It is on our webpage at www.australiancelebrations.com.au or we can email or post it to you.

If you are planning to marry a family member or a friend in a once off occasion

We appreciate that this is a wonderful hope of many people, however this is not a quick process. The qualification is large and usually takes one year to complete. Once you have completed your course you are then required to submit your application for appointment to the Attorney-General's Department, processing of this application usually takes 3 months and there is a $600 application fee. In addition to this you need to be appointed at least one month before the wedding date to accept the Notice of Intention to Marry from the marrying couple. Also, once you become a marriage celebrant there are ongoing financial obligations to hold your registration. You may wish instead to find an authorised marriage celebrant in your local community who you could work with to present the ceremony.

The average that they calculate for a thorough study of this certificate would be at a minimum 750 hours. These are notional hours and are given to Registered Training Organisations so that a more even value can be equated across all the different providers in Australia. The number of hours that tally toward the 750 hours may vary from person to person depending on which elective units are chosen.

Each learner who enrolls in this course will have a different style and speed to their studies. Working on this course will vary for each person, it depends on a person's own abilities, own free time to study, previous experience that may be credited, and how much effort they personally wish to add to their experience. MODES OF LEARNING

Online Learning

This mode has you studying all 13 units of competency externally with the help of your personal tutor.

Your personal tutor is available in the student online messaging system to assist you along the way.

The course is self-paced to suit your business and personal life and can be commenced at any time.

You will be required to use a PA system and video some assessment items; therefore, you will need to be able to have access to a video recorder or other recording device (most students use their smartphones easily). For your simulated marriage ceremony, you will require a PA system and a minimum of 22 people to assist with this task: two adults as the marrying couple and 20 guests.

To fulfil the requirements of this qualification, you must complete a mock marriage ceremony. For this, you will require 2 people to roleplay your marrying couple and 2 people to roleplay as your witnesses. These 4 people must be in the same room as you, while you perform the mock ceremony, to completely meet the requirements.

In addition to these 4 people, you require at a minimum, 18 other people to observe your ceremony, this can be done via zoom or in person, or a mixture of both, as long as the total count of guests is 18 or more. Your guests can be people of any age.

To meet the assessment requirements, you will need to provide evidence of your mock ceremony and roleplay/guest headcount. This will mean recording yourself performing the ceremony, along with the roleplay marrying couple and witnesses, and any other people in the same room observing.

Along with this, you may simultaneously record your guests by screen recording them on Zoom, or recording via Zoom, on the zoom recording function (this is only available in the paid version). If you are including the Zoom screen in your video content with the filming of the ceremony you should film the Zoom screen participants at the beginning of the ceremony, and then after the ceremony concludes.

Face to Face Classroom/Online Blended Learning

Our classroom/blended course is for 6 full days, after one fortnight we meet again for the assessment day where you will perform your simulated marriage ceremony for assessment.

We will supply the venue, catering, and a PA system.

You will be required to bring 2 guests for the whole day. The day is included in your full course fee.

Other assessments for client interaction and for ceremony demonstration also happen in class. After the 5 days you will still have your individual written assessments from the marriage units to complete and your elective assessments will be completed through our online learning centre. All classroom students after their class is complete, will then be tutored for the rest of their journey by our company director Beth O'Brien.

How the mock ceremony with the 20 guests is completed is described in notes under the previous heading "Marriage Celebrant Online".

Zoom and online combination

Our Zoom and online combination course is for 5 full days, or 1 day a week for 5 weeks on Zoom, followed by assessment work online.

Interacting with your trainer and others is a great way to begin your learning.

The course will begin with 5 days in a row of training. The five full days is a wonderful start to be able to interact with your trainer and receive their experience and knowledge. You also have others to interact with and start building celebrant friendships. Many past students have commented that this intensive start was beneficial rather than reading all the material for the first time by themselves.

After the 5 days you will then complete your assessments in the online student centre.

Traditional correspondence course

Please note this is not an online course, this option is a traditional correspondence course where the hard copy of your training materials is posted to you.

The course is self-paced to suit your business and personal life and can be commenced at any time.

This mode has you studying all 13 units of competency externally with the help of your personal tutor. Your personal tutor is available by email to assist you along the way, or you can phone our office for assistance.
